1 以下の文章を読み、各設問に答えなさい。

My Study Abroad in Canada

I recently returned from my Study Abroad Program in Canada. My high school in Tokyo is famous for its Study Abroad Program. Every student in our school goes to other countries such as Canada and New Zealand during their second year. I spent a year in Toronto, (①) I had a lot of fun.

My host family in Toronto were kind. They said I was part of their family. My host father was a doctor, so he was always busy at work. Sometimes, I did not see him for a few days, but when he was at home, he was very fun to talk to. My host mother was a housewife, so she was always at home. She always helped me (②) many problems in life and cooked many delicious meals for me. I tried to help her to cook when I had time. ③ My host brother and sister were difficult to speak to at the start. It was the first time that this family had a study abroad student living with them. They were not used to having someone from another country staying with them. We did not know what to talk about with each other, but when we understood that we all liked video games, ④ (ア communicate / イ easier / ウ each other / エ became / オ for / カ with / キ it / ク us / ケ to). All of my host family were kind, so I had a really good time.

The people at my new school in Toronto were very friendly. I went to the same school as my host brother and sister. My host brother was in the same year as me, so he introduced me to his friends. Everyone at the school was very kind. At school, they always asked me to join in their games and activities. My teachers were also very helpful. At first, I had a (⑤) time in most of my classes, and my test scores were very low. My teachers were worried about (⑥) I was and started giving me advice when I could not understand something in class. My teachers and friends were great and (⑦) them, school was a lot of fun.

While I was in Canada, I joined a local volunteer group with some friends from school. We cleaned up streets and helped people who didn't have a home. At some time during my stay, ⑧We (ア paint / イ some / ウ at / エ on / オ the library / カ pictures / キ were / ク the wall / ケ asked / コ to). This was also an act of volunteering. As my friends knew I liked art very much, it was decided that I would do it. So, I intended to paint it with a big painting of Tokyo and Japanese culture. At first, people in the community were not happy with my painting pictures on the wall. They didn't understand what I wanted to do. I explained to them that this was common to Japanese people. They let me (⑨) and a few days after I finished, it became really popular. It was even in the local newspaper! Volunteering in Canada was a wonderful experience.

My time in Canada was a lot of fun and I had many great experiences. Although I was glad to return to Japan, I felt unhappy about leaving my friends and host family in Toronto. I hope that I can visit Canada again when I finish high school.
